

Reporting on the U.S. Environment for International Students

Project Title	Reporting on the U.S. Environment for International Students
Project Summary	Research and assess the environment for international students from the Philippines studying at U.S. higher education institutions and compile resource documents that will help shape the strategic direction of EducationUSA programs in the Philippines.
Country	Philippines
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	N/A
Post	MANILA
Section	PAS
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

Interested candidates should visit EducationUSA.state.gov to learn more about services offered in advising centers throughout the world.

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

U.S. higher education admissions for international students

international exchange

Public Affairs

public relations

Recent knowledge (1-3 years) of U.S. admissions processes and application formats for higher education.

Additional Information

Rose Montgomery will continue her eInternship on this project.

Language Requirements

None